

Through the Flower Art Space

Established in 1978, Through the Flower is a 501(c)(3) non-profit arts organization committed to countering the erasure of women's achievements through art by providing educational resources and artistic opportunities.

CALL FOR ARTISTS:

Through the Flower Art Space + Belen Arts District Launch

The Through the Flower Art Space is celebrating its grand opening with a weekend of events along Becker Avenue, the home of the Belen Arts District! We are currently accepting submissions for a pop-up show in Belen's Old City Hall. Three selected artists will each be given a small room inside Old City Hall to install their exhibition.

Jurors include:

Judy Chicago: World-renowned artist and founder of Through the Flower

Megan Schultz: Studio Manager for Judy Chicago

Amanda Dannáe Romero: Director of Through the Flower Art Space

Works may include:

All two dimensional work including photography, paintings, drawings, digital, mixed-media, fabric art, ink, pastels, wax, graphite, and printmaking. We will also accept works of video, sculpture, and performance.

Artists must provide their own monitors/projectors, media players, and corresponding equipment for video/media installations

Pop-up dates:

July 20th - July 21st, 2019

Location:

Old City Hall, corner of Becker Ave and 5th Ave
Belen, NM 87002

Eligibility:

This call is open to both emerging and established New Mexico artists. Artists must be present to install/deinstall their work the week of the exhibition. All works must be prepared and ready to install by the artist.

ALL SUBMISSIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY JUNE 1ST 11:59:59 PM

How to Apply:

- All proposals must be submitted via email by the application deadline to:

amanda@throughtheflower.org

- Proposal for a 2 day pop-up exhibition

- 4 - 6 Images of previous work (72 dpi 2000 pixels longest side maximum)

- Your current CV

- $20 submission fee via Paypal

To submit your payment, please visit: www.throughtheflower.org/membership

Submission fees go towards helping fund future Through the Flower Art Space initiatives

For additional questions and information, please contact: amanda@throughtheflower.org

All entrants will be notified by June 21st